PHIL NEAL

THE way that the league is settling down, I have the distinct impression that there will be no runaway winners again this season—unlike a couple of years ago when Wolves romped it. I can only look forward one game at a time and it's important just to concentrate on our own fortunes, but I will be very surprised if anyone pulls way clear of the rest on the strength of what I've seen so far.

Things hadn't been going well for us for a variety of reasons but Saturday's win at Orient set us up very nicely for this evening's game. We had a little bit of luck go our way down at Orient and I've got to admit that it got a little nerve racking towards the end. But things have gone against us in previous games so I believe we were due a break or two.

It won't be easy for us tonight, irrespective of Rotherham's position. They also won on Saturday and we know from experience last season that Billy McEwan's side will be full of the fighting spirit.

It's worth reporting at this stage on the junior sides. The Reserves had a magnificent win last week and are showing all the signs of getting things together now that they can get on with the job without me having to fill in for injuries and the like!

The Youth team have had a string of good results in the FA Youth Cup and are now looking forward to an interesting tussle with Oldham Athletic in the first round proper on Friday week. Put that one in your diaries and come along to cheer the kids on.

VISITORS REVIEW

An update of today's opposition

ROTHERHAM UNITED

WE welcome the players, officials and supporters of Rotherham United to Burnden park this evening. The Millers are making their third visit of the year so far, having lost 0-1 to a Stuart Storer goals in the Leyland DAF 2nd round tie on 31 January and then won 2-0 in a League game ten days later. Clive Mendonca was Rotherham's hero on that occasion, escaping his marker to head in Buckley's cross for a fourth minute goal then seizing on a loose ball to drive a low shot past Felgate for the decider eleven minutes from the end.

Mendonca, certainly very impressive that afternoon, was the toast of Millmoor last Saturday when his 87th minute goal ended Preston's six match unbeaten run and lifted Rotherham off the foot of Division Three. Regarded as likely promotion challengers before a ball was kicked at the start of the season, Rotherham's form has been vastly disappointing so far. Though handicapped by injuries to defensive stalwart Nigel Johnson and striker Paul Haycock, which have ruled them out of the opening games, Rotherham have the bulk of the side which served them well last term. However, a run of five straight defeats left them languishing at the foot of the table until the welcome win on Saturday. Rotherham's only other League victory was a 5-1 home thrashing of Wigan in the middle of September.

Away from home this term Rotherham have lost all five League games, at Stoke (1-3), Bury (1-3), Leyton Orient (0-3), Grimsby (1-2) and Fulham (0-2). In the Rumbelows Cup they won 6-2 at Doncaster in the first round, completing an easy passage to the next stage with a 2-1 home victory, but went out to Second Division Blackburn 0-1 at Ewood Park after a 1-1 draw at Millmoor.

Last season Rotherham began confidently with a series of high scoring wins which served promise of a second successive promotion campaign. Bobby Williamson had 14 League goals to his credit before the end of November as the Millers ended the month in second place. Williamson's goals dried up in the second half of the season and 1990 has been a disappointing year so far for him and the team. Though the Millers were still in contention for a Play-Off place until the end of April, they won only 3 and drew 3 of their last 15 League goals to end a highly satisfactory campaign on a poor note. Indeed, since their 2-0 win here at Burnden in February, they have won only once away from home, 2-1 at Blackpool in April.

Rotherham manager Billy McEwan has fielded 23 players in the eleven League games so far as he searches for the right blend, including the recruitment of Sheffield United defender Paul Stancliffe on loan. Last Saturday's team which beat Preston showed seven changes from the thirteen players on duty in the defeat against Huddersfield and the shuffle certainly did the trick. It was a determined, battling performance and the relief generated by Mendonca's late strike, tucked away at the second attempt, was evident as he was submerged under a massive pile of red and white bodies.

Goalkeeper Billy Mercer came into the side for the first time this season and justified his selection with some superb saves from Shaw and Swann. The 21 year old former Liverpool trainee has had few opportunities at Millmoor due to the consistent form of 28 year old Kelham O'Hanlon, the former Middlesbrough 'keeper, now in his sixth season at the club. 33 year old defender Gerry Forrest returned to Rotherham during the summer after five seasons at Southampton. In his first spell with the Millers, Forrest chalked up 357 League games and his career tally is now 482. At the other end of the experience scale, young Julian Watts made his League bow earlier this month against Huddersfield and looks a fine prospect. 22 year old Martin Scott came up through the apprentice ranks at Millmoor and has made 88 League appearances in seven seasons while 31 year old Billy Russell, formerly with Doncaster and Scunthorpe, is a veteran of 435 League games and is now in his third season with the club. The Glasgow born defender began his career as an apprentice with Everton and also had a short spell with Celtic without making the first team. Ronnie Robinson was signed from West Brom at the start of last season and has been a regular ever since. The 24 year old Sunderland born defender played previously for Leeds and Doncaster and has made 159 League appearances.

Midfielder Shaun Goodwin is a 21 year-old local product who has been a regular for the last two seasons, during which time his accomplished displays have attracted the attention of a number of good judges. He is partnered by former Manchester United and Sheffield United midfielder Mark Dempsey, a 26 year old who came to Millmoor two seasons ago. 20 year old Sheffield born Simon Thompson had his first game of the season as substitute against Preston. The former trainee made his League bow two seasons ago and has made 13 League appearances so far.

29 year old Glasgow born striker Bobby Williamson has been Rotherham's leading scorer for the last two seasons. After playing for Clydebank and Rangers, he moved into the Football League with West Brom in 1986. Williamson returned to the side last Saturday after missing four games. He scored a hat-trick in the Rumbelows Cup tie at Doncaster earlier this season and his two League goals so far have taken his tally to 48 in 90 games for Rotherham. 22 year old Clive Mendonca is another former Sheffield United player now in his fourth season at Millmoor. Last term, his first as a regular in League football, he scored 14 goals in 32 games. 23 year old Des Hazel joined Rotherham in 1988 from Sheffield Wednesday and has since made 85 appearances, scoring 9 goals, relishing the opportunity of regular first team football denied to him at Hillsborough. 20 year old Bermudan born striker Shaun Goater signed for Rotherham last season following a trial spell at Manchester United. He has been a regular member of the first-team squad this season.

Experienced defender Nicky Law was a £35,000 closed season signing from Notts County. The 29 year old London born former Arsenal, Barnsley, Blackpool and Plymouth player, who had a loan spell at Scarborough last season, has made 283 League appearances. Midfielder Steve Spooner was a £20,000 summer buy from York City. The 29 year old played formerly for Derby, Halifax, Chesterfield and Hereford and has scored 57 goals in 338 career League games. Former Wimbledon, West Brom and Plymouth striker Stewart Evans has been in and out of the side during his time at Millmoor. The 29 year old has scored 73 goals in his 286 league-game career. 28 year old defender Andy Barnsley is now in his second spell with the club after a two-year spell with Sheffield United and is two games short of his League game century for the Millers. Former Buxton defender Ally Pickering moved into League football last season and made his League debut at Cardiff in March.

UNFAIR BURDEN ON UNITED AND VILLA

Victories in both legs of their First Round European ties by Manchester United and Aston Villa provided the best possible start, not only for them but for the rest of the First Division of the Barclays League. Under the qualification system for the UEFA Cup, it means that England has already accumulated 8 points towards qualifying places for 1992/93.

The way the system works is that 2 points are awarded for a win and 1 point for a draw in all 3 European club competitions. A bonus point is awarded to those clubs who reach the Quarter Finals, the Semi Finals and the Finals (maximum 3). The overall performance of each nation's clubs is then added together over a 5 year period and the aggregate number of points divided by the total number of entrants from each country. The European governing body then allocate the 64 UEFA Cup places on the basis of a league table compiled from each nation's average points. However, because some national leagues within football's European union contest a spring to autumn season, the qualifying table operates one year in arrears (hence this season's performances deciding places for 1992/93).

English clubs' 5-year ban from European competition has completely eroded our previous lofty position near the top of the qualifying table, a position which had provided us with 4 UEFA Cup places. Manchester United and Aston Villa are, therefore, endeavouring to accumulate a sufficient number of points this season to make up some of that loss.

But on the basis of the qualifying procedure described above, both clubs would have to progress to at least the Semi Finals of their respective competitions in order to achieve a high enough average for an extra UEFA Cup place. Both clubs carry that burden with them into the Second Round—no offence to Wrexham—but United and Villa can be assured that the rest of the First Division is right behind them.

LOOK BACK IN TIME

Reports and events from years past

23rd OCTOBER

1897: The Wanderers ended a three match spell without a win when Nottingham Forest were defeated 2-0 at Burnden. Tom Miller and Bob Jack were the scorers.

1909: Goals from Harold Lockett and Billy Hunter were enough to defeat Sunderland 2-1 at Burnden but Bolton remained at the bottom of division one.

1920: Joe Smith netted his 11th goal in 12 games but Middlesbrough proved too tough to crack at Ayresome Park where they ran out 4-1 winners.

1926: The best league gate at Burnden for 5 years 39,258 saw a 2-2 draw with Bury extended Bolton's unbeaten run to six games. The Wanderers were unchanged for the sixth consecutive game.

1937: Whilst the Government made an appeal to all league clubs for home defence volunteers Bolton visited Charlton and came away with a point from a 1-1 draw thanks to a goal from Harry Goslin.

1943: Tom Woodward hit Bolton's goal in a 2-1 home defeat at the hands of Blackpool in the Football League Northern Section. The gate of 10,243 was over 7,000 in excess of the previous game against Southport.

1948: Five goals were

WILLIE MOIR Scorer against Newcastle on this day in 1948

conceded for the second time in a week when Newcastle United visited and won 5-1. Willie Moir scored the Wanderers consolation whilst a week earlier Middlesbrough had hit five without reply.

1954: Bill McAdams, later to play for Bolton, shot Manchester City into a 5th minute lead at Burnden but goals from John Wheeler and Nat Lofthouse gave the Wanderers a half time advantage.

Don Revie found the target after the interval and a 2-2 draw resulted.

1976: A fiery game at Oldham saw Willie Morgan and David Shaw get sent off in a 2-2 draw. Roy Greaves and Steve Taylor scored for Wanderers.

1982: Barnsley inflicted Bolton's seventh defeat of the season with a 2-0 win at Burnden thanks to goals from Ronnie Glavin and Alan Birch.

BURY 2 BOLTON 2

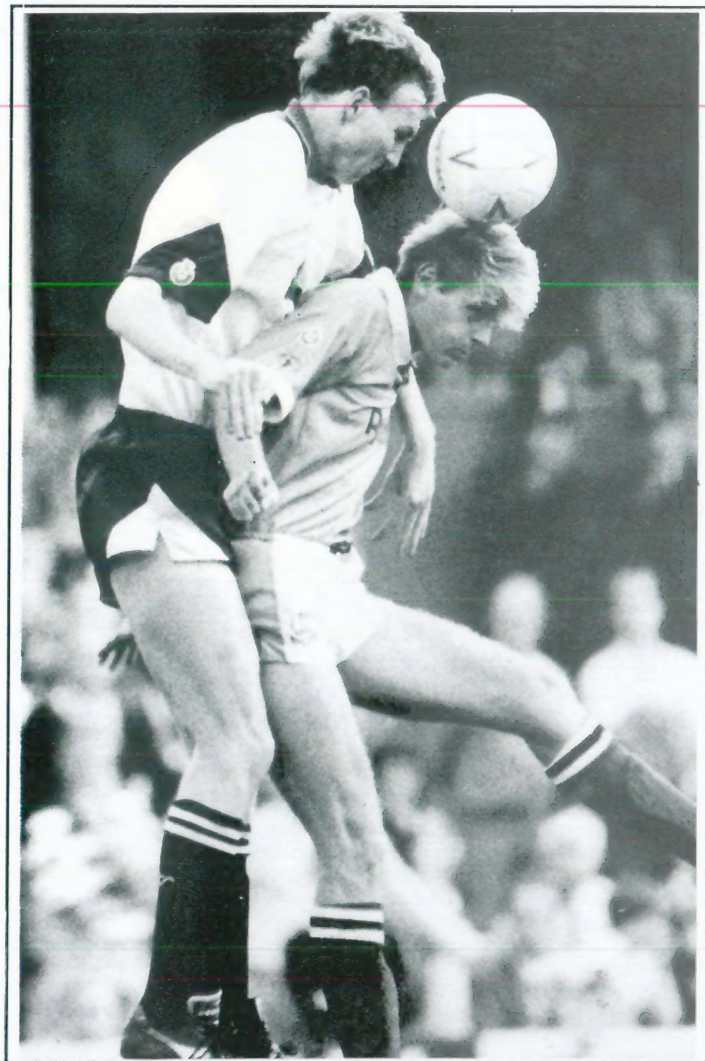

As we saw local derby, that saw the Wanderers collect their first away point since the opening day of the season win at Shrewsbury.

Steve Thompson was on hand to open the scoring with his first goal of the season but then Bury hit back with goals from Patterson and Knill to take the lead. Tony Philliskirk was the man responsible for securing the away point when he confidently converted the 75th minute penalty awarded to the Wanderers for hand ball in the Bury area.

A look at some of the great soccer stars

DEREK SPENCE Ex Northern Ireland

Derek Spence usually has some interesting and amusing stories to tell from a much travelled career around England and abroad.

When at Oldham he was advised by coach Bobby Collins to go out on loan and the opportunity come via Bury. Derek recalled, "I wasn't a first team regular then and talks at Gigg Lane with Allan Brown went well. They wanted me on a permanent basis but being a Fourth Division club, I was thinking more in terms of a loan spell. However, when I got back to Oldham the Chairman said 'We'll be very sorry to see you go!' my mind was changed in seconds."

Eventually Derek caught the eye of Northern Ireland boss Billy Bingham and he won his first cap in 1975 against Yugoslavia and a second not long after against England. Derek said, "I was picked as man of the match and still have the shirt I swapped with Kevin Keegan. I was looking for big things then."

Things changed in 1977 when Derek became the first British player to join a Greek club in a move from Blackpool. He said, "Des McBain was then Secretary at Blackpool and he came with me to Ostend where the deal was completed. My new club, Olympiakos, paid in cash. Des couldn't believe his luck."

The wages paid in Greece were "terrific" and surpassed those being played at Blackpool. Derek continued, "I had never ben to Greece before in my life and signed without seeing the Stadium." He revealed that the Greek season starts in September and this is preceded by ten pre-season friendlies. "We attracted 40,000 crowds at every home game and I was quite successful out there, finishing third in the league, and winning the Greek Cup against A.E.K. Athens" he said.

But you can't have it both ways in Greece and Derek had to forfeit a full season of international appearances. He explained, "They couldn't care less about international appearances. I did get a call up to play against Holland but the telex went to Panathinikos instead of Olympiakos and I didn't know until a week after the game."

Greek football has certain detrimental aspects involving politics and player power and there was a story surrounding that Cup Final match. Derek said, "Apparently my Greek team mates took a dislike to our Yugoslavian coach and really only two of us played, me and a Danish lad but we ran out 5-1 winners. I remember scoring the first. Afterwards, the President named players who hadn't tried." The ironic twist was that the coach got an extended contract.

Derek also remembers the lead up to the game and said, "The team coach overheated and the whole team walked to the Ground."

Derek Spence is out of the game at the moment but would listen to any club needing a scout, or might fancy some capacity on the commercial side.

One of the most popular players with the Burden Park crowd over the past couple of seasons, Barry Cowdrill, is arguably one of manager Phil Neal's best signings for the Club.

Joining us from West Brom in the summer of 1988, Barry quickly made the position of left back his own, with the Burden Terrace in particular warming to his long over-lapping runs which added a new dimension to the Wanderers attack.

The Midland's born player relished the regular first team football after his lengthy spell at West Brom where in the main he was a squad player. After playing well over a hundred games for them Barry was given a free transfer and despite interest from a number of clubs, Bolton won his signature with Barry adding "I knew Mick Brown from his days at the Hawthorns and with his coaching methods coupled with the set up at the Wanderers I had no hesitation joining the Club."

Barry did have a spell on loan with tonight's visitors Rotherham, a few seasons back. I wonder how many Millers supporters remember that with him playing five games for the Club under the management of Norman Hunter, but there was no chance of a permanent move to the South Yorkshire club with West Brom not in the market to sell.

end of his first season with the club will always be very special to Barry. "What a great day out. It was fantastic playing at Wembley; it's every players aim to play there and I am no exception. The win was the icing on the cake, I was so pleased for the fans."

Last season of course saw the tall defender scoop the Player of the Year Award, something that touched him deeply, especially as this was his first such award in football. "What a moment, all the lads had played well but to get the supporters vote was a true honour."

With the summer signing of David Burke from Crystal Palace competition for the left back spot has really hotted up and Barry found himself operating from a left sided midfield role at the beginning of the campaign. Injury in early September saw Barry on the sidelines with a nasty broken blood vessel in his calf keeping him out for around a month before a recent comeback game in the Reserves at Scunthorpe in which a certain Sammy Lee also had a run-out. Commenting on our newest recruit, Barry added "I think he's an excellent signing. With all his experience he should really be able to help our younger lads in the side."

Barry returned to first team action in the recent home game against Stoke coming on as substitute to a tremendous reception from the Burnden Park faithful and as he states, "If we can finally get a settled side together then the results will come. We have been unfortunate with injuries and suspensions but I am sure it will come right."

On the home front, Barry likes to relax with his wife Vivien and five year old daughter Laura Elizabeth, who he now admits is starting to take a keen interest in his football.

Commenting on the recent golf day organised between the coaching staff and players, he did raise his eyebrows at Mick Brown's handicapping which he did admit left a lot to be desired! On the plus side these golf days are great for team spirit, with all the lads getting involved whether they play the game or not.

On Match days Barry admits to being superstitious, always following goalie Dave Felgate onto the pitch as well as going through the same routines each game. Alan Stubbs has impressed Barry since he has been at the Club so it has been of so surprise to see the youngster do so well this season in the first team. Barry also says keep a look out for a number of good youngsters in the youth side this year who could well make an impression in the first team in years to come.

Now that Barry has recovered from his early season injury he is aiming to help pull the side up the Third Division ladder and no doubt when he starts to make those long runs from defence you will hear a big roar from the Burnden terrace.

The Wanderers were unlucky not to come back over the Pennines with more than a point under their belts after dominating the second half at Glanford Park.

Sammy Lee began his Bolton career with an eye catching performance as the Wanderers came back from a half time deficit.

Scunthorpe went in front in the 40th minute with a clinical finish from Neil Cox who headed home a Perry Cotton cross.

After a number of near misses the equaliser came in the 65th minute. Kevin Rose began the move with a long kick down the field that was headed on by Mike Jeffrey into the path of Ian Stevens who scored from 20 yards.

It seemed only a matter of time before the Wanderers would find the winner but United's luck held out.

Bolton's youth team progressed into the first round proper of the FA Youth Cup with a sturdy display against Accrington at the Crown Ground.

Steve Birks put the Wanderers in front after 37 minutes but they had to battle hard in the early stages of the second half as Stanley got on top.

Chris Clarke was again in good form in goal and the pressure was lifted when Craig Lewin stormed through the home defence to put Bolton two up in the 68th minute.

Our recent away encounter at Bury saw them produce a bright and breezy programme consisting of 40 pages priced at £1.

Editor Peter Cullen combines well up to date facts and articles with some very interesting information from years gone by. My favourites throughout the issue were 'Scrapbook' a look at Bury and the FA Cup, 'Welcome to Gigg Lane' which was a well researched, three page run down of the Wanderers and 'We've met before' which of course covered meetings from the sides from yesteryears.

Overall view—excellent programme which is a great credit to all concerned who work on it.

SAFE HANS

A lighthearted look at football

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

IT was smashing to see such a fine attacking match last week for Wanderers old boy Freddie Hill, a game I am sure played just as Fred would have wished to, with plenty attempts on goal. Fred was of course a great servant to the club playing 410 games for us as well as scoring 79 goals, a fine achievement by any standards and it certainly was a night to remember with the Whites fully deserving their 2-1 victory over a powerful Manchester City side.

The bonus of that confidence boosting win over the First Division outfit was the three points we got from Leyton Orient on Saturday. It really was a tremendous all round performance from the lads who smashed Orient's 100% home record with a goal from flying winger Stuart Storer enough to secure a must welcome victory. It was also good to see tonight's visitors Rotherham record only their second victory of the season last weekend with a late goal good enough to see off a fast improving Preston North End side, who have former Wanderers goalkeeper Simon Farnworth in outstanding form at present.

Rotherham, like ourselves, will be looking to build on that win so tonight's clash could well be intriguing with both sides looking to make up lost ground and put a foothold up the Third Division table. Already well up the Divisions leading goalscorers Tony Philliskirk will be gunning to add to his totals, probably checking out the goalscoring chart on the Teletext TV he won from being voted Rumbelows Man of the Match in the recent cup tie against Coventry down here at Burnden Park. The likeable Geordie striker has certainly got an eye for goal and since he joined the club his ratio of goals scored matches any of the leading strikers in the football league.

Moving on to our National side, and the expected victory over Poland, which in the end wasn't as convincing as the 2-0 scoreline suggests. Graham Taylor will obviously be well pleased with the result but I am sure after watching Eire's slaughter of Turkey he must be a worried man with the game against the Irish next on the agenda. Jack Charlton has certainly turned green, convincing the whole nation that there is more to just drinking Guinness, with his side now being a major force in world football—and that's not just a load of Blarney.

It was also a most encouraging night for Northern Ireland, Scotland and at long last Wales, who not only have one of the best goalkeepers in the world in Neville Southall (just in front of our own Dave Felgate of course) but also three deadly strikers in Rush, Hughes and Saunders. It was a most welcome win for the Taffs over a useful Belgian side and you never know, they could well go from strength and qualify for the finals of the European Championships now in 1992 with the Faroe Islands.

SIMON MARLAND

Rotherham United have been something of a jinx side to the Wanderers over the years with the Yorkshire club having kept a clean sheet in the last five league games between the teams, winning four of them.

It was in the Second Division that our paths first crossed when in October 1964 a Francis Lee penalty and a goal from Gordon Taylor gave Bolton the points at Burnden. The following April a scoreless draw resulted at Millmoor.

In 1965/66 United recorded the first of their four successes at Burnden with a 3-1 win. This game was sandwiched between Bolton's best home victories of that season which came by 6-0 against Middlesbrough and 4-0 against Carlisle United.

Gordon Taylor's last minute goal at Millmoor in August

Tony Caldwell scores Bolton's last League goal against Rotherham in August 1985.

1966 was enough to win the game for Bolton but this still stands as the Wanderers' only victory on that ground.

United's first visit to Burnden in the Third Division came in April 1972 when a 2-2 draw resulted. This extended Bolton's unbeaten run to 8 games as they twice fought back from being behind. Ron Phillips scored both Bolton goals whilst Trevor Swift and Jimmy Mullen scored for United. Roger Hunt made his final League appearance in this game and he retired shortly after.

Bolton's last League success over

Rotherham was in January 1985 at Burnden. The Wanderers were fighting to avoid relegation whilst United were on the promotion fringe.

Tony Caldwell opened the scoring with a header in the 41st minute and three minutes from time he despatched George Oghani's cross in similar fashion for his 7th goal in his last 8 games.

A year later Bolton went down 4-0 at Millmoor in what is the largest winning margin in games between the clubs. Two goals came from Tommy Tynan and one each from Mike Trusson and Dean Emerson.

The Wanderers' last League goal against United was on the opening day of the 1985/86 season when Tony Caldwell scored in a 1-1 draw at Burnden.

Last term United completed the double by winning 1-0 at Millmoor, ending Bolton's undefeated League run of 20 games and by 2-0 at Burnden. Bolton had some consolation by winning 1-0 in the Leyland DAF cup at Burnden.

Our overall League record against Rotherham is as follows:

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

GOALKEEPER Jim McDonagh began his career with home town club Rotherham United making 121 League appearances for them and gaining England youth honours.

He was an ever present in 1974/75 when United won promotion form Division Four but was then out for a long period with a broken leg.

After a loan spell at Manchester United he came to Burnden also on loan, in August 1976 and the following month signed for a £10,000 fee.

He was the club's keeper during their Second Division Championship winning season of 1977/78 in which only 33 goals were conceded and made a club record 161 consecutive League appearances.

In July 1980 he moved to Everton in a £250,000 deal and whilst there won the first of his 24 Republic of Ireland caps to give him the unusual record of having been capped by two Countries.

He returned to Burnden twelve months later in an exchange deal involving Mike Walsh and left Bolton for the last time in July 1983 for Notts County.

Since then he has seen service with Birmingham City, Gillingham, Sunderland, Scarborough, Huddersfield Town and Charlton Athletic and management with Galway United.

His Bolton record is as follows:-

SEASON BY SEASON

A look back at years gone by

1927/28 SEASON

BOLTON made a terrible start to the season, winning only once in the opening 10 games, a 3-1 home victory over Blackburn on the second Saturday of the season.

Loss of form and injuries to Harry Greenhalgh, Jimmy Seddon, John Smith, David Jack and Ted Vizard, all corner stones of the side, were heavily felt.

The Wanderers hit the bottom of the League, after a 2-1 home defeat by Newcastle in the 9th game, for the first time since 1909-10. The following week a 1-0 reverse at Huddersfield was suffered, Dick Pym saving a 6th minute penalty from Kelly, only to be beaten by a 56th minute spot kick by Jackson.

Two days later the tide appeared to turn when the Wanderers defeated Preston 6-3 at Deepdale in a 3rd round Lancashire Cup tie. Harold Blackmore netted four times, George Gibson striking the other two.

This form was transferred to the League when Liverpool were beaten at Burnden and Arsenal at Highbury both by 2-1. Burnley were then crushed 7-1 at Burnden with Harold Alec Finney... First goal for Bolton from a 50 yard free kick.

Blackmore again netting four goals, including a first half hat trick, David Jack also claiming a hat trick of headed goals. Burnley were however handicapped when they lost goalkeeper Somerville with a broken collar bone and two other outfield players were tried between the posts. After the game the electric lights failed and the players had to bath by candlelight.

The following week it was the Wanderers turn to lose their custodian when Dick Pym broke his wrist during a 4-2 defeat at Leicester.

By the end of November a much more satisfactory position of 15th had been reached although the Lancashire Cup had been lost when Bury won a semi final at Burnden.

December saw steady progress with three victories and two defeats. Alec Finney netted his first goal for Bolton from a 50 yard free kick in a 3-1 home win over Aston Villa. David Jack grabbed his second hat trick of the season in a 4-3 reverse at Sheffield United on Christmas Eve for which a special train with ten coaches was laid on from Bolton—only 13 people made the journey.

Away results in the early part of the New Year were improved dramatically. Blackburn were beaten 6-1 at Ewood, Middlesbrough 5-2 at Ayresome and Spurs 2-1 at White Hart Lane. The FA Cup competition was however a short lived affair. Luton Town were accounted for in the third round but Stoke City, who were then in the 2nd Division, triumphed 4-2 in the Potteries at the next hurdle. Harry Nuttall missed a penalty during this game but Len Murphy scored his first goal for the Wanderers, after his transfer from Derby, Albert Picken going the other way in exchange.

A 3-2 home win over Birmingham put the Wanderers into 4th place in the League with an outside chance of championship success. League leaders Huddersfield Town were the next visitors to Burnden and won 1-0 before a seasons best gate of 41,245. This defeat put Bolton's form into reverse with only one win being recorded in the next six games.

Changes in the forward line were made when John Smith was sold to Bury for £1,590 whereupon he scored a hat trick on his debut. In his place came James McClelland from Middlesbrough for a fee of £6,800, he too scored on his debut, a 2-2 draw at Burnley. The new signing netted 8 goals in the final 10 games of the season.

The final game of the season attracted only 5,844 to Burnden for a 1-1 draw with Sheffield United. It was controversial in that United captain Billy Gillespie was sent off for butting Jimmy Seddon who was carried off injured. Seddon returned five minutes later only to be sent off as joint offender in the incident. The receipts from the game of only £300 were the smallest in the League since the War.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand – one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
